Winter Scene..

As the snow fills the air, we are keeping cozy here at Day Hab. After chatting over our coffees in the morning, the participants are "warmed" and ready to take on the day. On Tuesday, we started working on a mural of a winter scene. We placed a canvas over a bulletin board in our main room. The participants took turns painting the mural. Roger painted a snow-filled ground. Using blue paint, Eshka painted a winter sky. We marveled as the snow scene began to take shape. We will be adding in snowflakes, trees, a lamppost and a moon. The participants can hardly wait to indulge in this winter paradise!!

Trip to Amazing Savings..

The participants were delighted when they heard we would be going to Amazing Savings. On Wednesday, we loaded the buses in a “New York minute” and were on our way. The store was bustling with shoppers.

Danny bought a variety of books. Yelena purchased perfume. Yanky bought an electronic memory game. We walked around the store, eyeing the vast display of colorful items. The participants came back with radiant faces. Stay tuned for an interactive trip taking place next week that will have you “rolling”! Can you guess?!

Recap from last week: Trip to SKA High School..

When we announced the latest development, cheers erupted. The participants anticipate this trip all year and Tuesday could not have come fast enough. The sun was glistening, matching our mood! We loaded the buses in no time and trekked out to the SKA

Girls School in Long Island for a Chanukah extravaganza. The girls greeted us with glowing faces and were just as excited as we were.

Francine received a grand welcome back as the students recognized her from last year. Bracha was seen conversing with one of the girls. We sat in a big room and started off with a Chanukah Bingo game. Chocolate coins anyone? All were thrilled when someone shouted, "BINGO". Just wait and see, there's more excitement coming! After the table game, the young ladies led us to the dance floor. Yaakov was spotlighted in the center of the circle. Gita's smile stretched from one ear to the other.

We danced up a storm and could feel the energy coursing through our veins! We then ate a scrumptious lunch. The participants were delighted to receive soda cans from the students. We were sad to leave but we know that we'll be seeing our friends again real soon. We thanked our hosts with tremendous gratitude for this memorable day. A special shout out to our devoted staff for this unforgettable afternoon!!

Chanukah Gifts!!
