Today was a great day at Otsar!
We started the day with davening and movement.
What fun it was to get all of our exercise in for the day.
We continued working on our Pesach projects and even made an adorable "I SPY:" project that we can take home! What fun it was putting all the adorable pieces inside the containers! I hope we can find them all.
We had the drummer sing with us today and play instruments!
We loved every second of it :)
We can't wait to see everyone next week :)
