Trip to the Matzah Bakery..

On Monday, an exclusive group of participants took a trip to the Chareidi Matzah Bakery in Boro Park. Eddie J and Bracha watched in fascination as the men worked together to prepare and bake the matzah in exactly 18 minutes. It was quite impressive to watch the assembly line and see first-hand how matzah is made. As we "hammered away" this Pesach season, the participants are all ready for the Seder night, where we will be served like kings!

Pesach Pillows..

As we are busy getting ready for Pesach, the participants had an opportunity to unwind and relax. We created pillow cases to be used at the Pesach Seder. Each participant received a white pillow case along with green and blue tissue paper. We created a border with the tissue paper and spritzed water on it. The colors seeped into the material and created a dazzling effect. Yanky envisioned leaning on this pillow, crunching on matzah. Sara appreciated creating this meaningful craft that will surely enhance her Seder. The finishing touch will be the word Pesach with a design in the middle of the pillow. Stay tuned for a wonderful week ahead filled with Pesach festivities at every turn!

Trip to Melody Lanes..

On Wednesday, the participants went on a “strike”ing trip to the bowling alley. We got off the buses in the morning with glistening faces. Every day at Otsar is exciting but this Wednesday was extra special! We loaded the buses eagerly and were on our way. The participants were in tough competition as everyone at Otsar is skilled bowlers. Bobby swiftly rolled the ball down the lane. Next up was Eddie S. Yelena swung the ball, like a professional. The scores were racking up. The lucky winner was none other than Mordy! We clapped and cheered for him. The participants truly had a “ball”. All too soon, we were back at Day Hab. Shout out to our devoted staff for making our days come alive!!

Flatlands Library..

On Thursday morning, a lucky group of participants, including Yossi and Danny, trooped to the Flatlands library. We were given several choices of videos. I Love Lucy won out. The participants sat spellbound as they watched their favorite characters come alive. All too soon, it was time to leave. A great word to “characterize” the participants is wonderful!
