Trip to Chuck E. Cheese..

Rumors were heard throughout Day Hab. Is it really true?! When we announced we would be going to Chuck E. Cheese, the participants erupted in cheers. On Wednesday, we loaded the buses as fast as we can eager to get there early. When we arrived, Chuck E., the renowned mouse mascot, waved to us. We purchased points and ran off to play the arcades. Francine shocked us with her strength, banging the hammer down with vigor. We were excited to find new arcades such as Monopoly and skee-ball with a pull feature. The participants couldn't get enough and the adrenaline rush pumped through our veins. Eddie J won big and claimed his prize. Stay tuned for an adventurous trip taking place next week that will have you asking for more!!

Snow Scene..

The participants anticipate our weekly art workshop and Tuesday could not have come fast enough! Faye unraveled a magical snow scene. Each participant received a bright pink or blue paper with a picture of an igloo. We created a mixture of water and salt and poured it on the outline of the picture. Out came a heat gun which we used to harden the salt. Bobby watched in fascination as the mixture crystallized instantly. Some of us had a streak of creativity and created designs with the mixture. We added food coloring to color the salt and poured it in a pattern onto a paper. Bracha wrote her name with a heart. Shout out to our “un-brr-lievable” staff for infusing our days with “warmth”!

Balloon Swatting Game..

Here at Otsar, we are always looking to spruce up our activities and raise the bar. Monday brought along a day filled with colorful balloons and good cheer. Bright balloons stretched its arms and waved to us as we learned the name of the game. The participants sat in two rows, facing each other. Each participant got a fly swatter. We blew up balloons and placed them in the center of the two rows. Our job was to hit the balloons to the participants on the other side, using the swatter. Lots of cheering and laughter was heard as the participants competed in this fast-paced game! Lila hit the balloon to Danny. Zisha missed the hit from David but quickly found the balloon and swatted it back. It was heartwarming to watch everyone work together to make the game a smashing success. We all know that there is never a dull moment at Otsar Day Hab!!

Air Hockey..

We unraveled an exciting activity, hot off the press! We introduced the riveting game of air hockey to the participants. With our spirit and spunk in hand, we trooped to the building next door. The participants learnt the rules of the game and jumped right in. The teams were divided, with three people per team. As professional players, each team had a name of a major league. One team was the Giants and the other, the Jets. Eshka wasted no time in hitting the puck straight into the goal. Next up was Eddie S. The staff kept track of the scores using a scoreboard. The competition was fierce as the scores racked up. The Giants team announced their victory with a whopping score of 7. The saying "Teamwork makes the dream work" rang truer than ever!
