Perfect Pine Cones..

Who remembers pine cones?? The participants were introduced to these brown "bushes" before and couldn't quite pinpoint when. Sure enough, Fayge reminded us that we incorporated pinecones when we created hedgehogs back in October. We were delighted to use them again and jumped right in. Each participant received a cotton ball. We spread it apart and stuffed the shreds into the folds of the pine cone. The finishing touch was coating the pine cone in iridescent glitter.

Fayge hung up this sparkling craft on a winter bulletin board at Day Hab, proudly displayed for all to see. The grins on the participants' faces matched the glitter on the pine cones. Anyone in need of a skilled artist? You know where to find us!

Spot the Item..

This week's activity was "spot on"! The participants were jumping out of their seats with contagious energy as staff explained the game.

We divided the room into three so that two tables competed against each other. We announced different items around the room and our job was to find them. Once a participant spotted an item, he/she raced around the room. Whoever reached the item first earned their team a point. Painting of a lake anyone? Mordy spotted a "cat" on the bulletin board. Yvette frantically searched and finally found a photo of Eshka on the birthday bulletin board. Our intelligence and sharp vision came in handy. The participants aced their way through the game and emerged victorious!! The laughter lasted through the day and accompanied us home!

Flatlands Library..

On Tuesday morning, a lucky group of participants, including Marc and Shoshana, trooped to the Flatlands library. We had a personal guide, Michael, who read us a book. We were then given several choices of videos. Zootopia won out. The participants sat spell-bound as they watched their favorite characters come alive. All too soon, it was time to leave. We are counting down the days to our next visit!

Drumroll Please..

The participants anticipate our weekly drumming session and Thursday could not have come fast enough! When Rob arrived with a “bang”, the participants cheered. Hey, hey, what do you say, let me know your name! We drummed along to the welcome chant. The next song was a classic from Yaakov Shwekey. Gita was smiling from ear to ear, having a “blast”. Rob then went around and asked each participant for a number. Aloud and in unison, the participants banged on their drum that number of times. Sara chose the number 5. Lila surprised us with a dance. The music was still ringing in our ears as we continued with our next activity. We all know that Otsar Day Hab truly can't be “beat”!!
