Kitchen Collection..

This week, the kitchen was buzzing with excitement and delicious food! On Monday, we had rice, nutritious fish and vegetable salad.

In the afternoon, we baked our very own apple pies in honor of Thanksgiving. We each received round tins and dough. The participants rolled out the dough and placed it on the bottom of the tin as the crust. We then chopped apples as the filling. Zisha was seen hard at work. Miriam's mouth watered as she prepared this heavenly treat. We baked the pies in the oven and counted the minutes until they would be ready. The delicious aroma wafted through Day Hab. We took them home on Wednesday together with our thankful plaques. Tuesdays' menu was delightful with potatoes, string beans and tuna patties. It's hard to choose a favorite group at Otsar, though kitchen is surely on top of the list!

Drumroll Please..

The participants anticipate our weekly drumming session and Thursday could not have come fast enough! When Rob arrived with a “bang”, the participants cheered. Hey, hey, what do you say, let me know your name! We drummed along to the welcome chant. The next song was a classic from Mordechai Schapiro. “We can all sing..” Eddie J was smiling from ear to ear, having a “blast”. Francine took the cue and got up to dance. Rob then went around and asked each participant for a number. Aloud and in unison, the participants banged their drum that number of times. Roger chose the number 5. The music was still ringing in our ears as we continued with our next activity. We all know that Otsar Day Hab truly can’t be “beat”!!

Spotlight on Danny..

On Wednesday, we were honored to feature Danny. We learnt all about his likes and interests. Danny’s Hebrew name is Daniel. His favorite lunch served at Otsar is pita pizza. We learnt that his favorite day of the week is Thursday when we have our weekly canteen.

Danny's most-liked season is summer as he loves the glorious weather. His chosen holiday is Chanukah, he enjoys the parties. We then went around the room and offered the participants an opportunity to ask questions. Maria wanted to know what Danny likes to do on weekends. The participants love having Danny around. Can you guess who's on for spotlight next week?!

Otsar Salon..

On Friday, the ladies were pampered as they got their nails done. We were treated like queens as we relaxed in the calming atmosphere. Lila debated before choosing a pretty shade of pink. The women were on a high to have their nails done in honor of Shabbos. Of course the job was superbly done, ala' Otsar style! We can't wait to welcome the weekend, feeling glamorous!
