Dancing with Arkadiy..

The beaming smiles on the participants' faces when Arkadiy walks in speak for itself. He truly adds a unique touch to our Day Hab. On Tuesday, Arkadiy was greeted with resounding applause when he arrived.

We started out with warm up exercises. "Stretch those hands as high as you can". We continued learning the Salsa dance. Arkadiy showed us the steps, along with a beat. Step, step, twirl.. The participants then took a partner and danced the Hora. Yossi laughed as he circled around with his hand in the air. Sara and David were the perfect duo. Day Hab was transformed into a festive ballroom as the participants danced to their hearts content. We were blown away by our skilled dancers. Stay tuned for some new moves that will most definitely "take the floor"!

Perfect Planters..

As Shavuos is inching closer, preparation for the joyous holiday is in full swing. In our art workshop, we started working on planters that we will be bringing home. We each received hard cups to be used as a mold. The participants created a mixture of plaster of paris and water. We inserted a cup with pennies to create a space for the soil. We then poured the mixture into the empty space between the two cups. Yelena laughed as she got splattered by the plaster. Eddie J envisioned this planter complete with succulent plants adorning his Shavuos table. We will continue this project over the next few weeks. Hang tight for exciting programming taking place next week that will leave you "on fire"!!

Trip to Amazing Savings..

Wednesday morning dawned bright and early. Cheers erupted when we announced we would be going to Amazing Savings. After chatting over our coffees, we donned our jackets and were on our way. The store was bustling with shoppers. Maria, ever the fashionista, bought stylish hair clips. Zisha purchased a radio holder. Eshka bought perfume. We walked around the store, oohing and aahing at the items and wishing we could buy the store. The participants returned with a spring in their step. Anyone in need of a personal shopper? You know where to find us!

Trivia Game..

Here at Otsar, the participants can be seen immersed in interactive activities. The participants enjoy bonding over our shared interests.

On Thursday, staff unveiled an informative trivia game. Yaakov was right up to the challenge. We asked the group different questions on a variety of topics. "We are a group of three men famous for our comedy shows". Bobby thought for just a moment before announcing the Three Stooges! "Which park is known as the happiest place on Earth"? We have an intelligent group of participants and the answers rolled right off our tongues. We are raring and "game" for a wonderful month ahead!
