Magnificent Matzah Covers..

Day Hab has been a hive of activity in preparation for the upcoming Yom Tov of Pesach. Festive music can be heard vibrating off the walls. On Tuesday, the participants made a Pesach staple, a matzah cover. We each received white fabric in the shape of a rectangle. We spritzed the cloth with water. The participants then covered the fabric with tissue paper. Eddie S chose a blue and green color combination.

After spritzing the tissue paper with water, the participants watched in amazement as the tissue paper bled into the fabric. Yanky felt a rush of pride as he admired the majestic swirl of colors. We put the covers aside to dry and will finish up the project next week. Stay tuned for some exciting surprises coming up that will make it hard to "leave the table"! Can you guess?!

Karaoke with Brendan..

When Brendan arrived on Thursday afternoon, he was greeted with a “standing ovation”. The participants were handed all sorts of drums.

We took the cue of the music and jammed away. Brendan brought in a standing mike and announced we would be singing our very own tunes.

Oooh! One by one, the participants were called up to the front of the room. Yvette honored us with a rendition of G-d Bless America. Yossi was smiling from ear to ear as he sang Siman Tov U’Mazel Tov. The participants felt like a million dollars as they were spotlighted center stage. The smiles were contagious and soon spread around the room. We all know that Otsar Day Hab “steals the show” in cutting-edge programming!

Birthdays of the Month..

The birthday celebrations are just one of many reasons why the participants love coming to Day Hab each day. Tuesday could not have come fast enough. We clapped and sang for those born in March. Happy Birthday to Peryl and Yvette! Anat made us a beautifully decorated chocolate cake with whipped topping and sprinkles. Those that celebrated their birthdays received a birthday balloon and colorful hat to take home. The participants showered the celebrants with well wishes. We also have a sparkling birthday bulletin board with the pictures of those celebrating each month. Whose birthday is coming up next month?!
